FRIENDS OF dance
MEMBERSHIP BENEFITS 2017–18

celebrating 30 years
FRIENDS OF DANCE was established in 1987 to provide financial support for annual scholarship assistance and projects that support the mission of the Florida State University School of Dance. We are grateful for the continuous support of our membership.

By hosting events and programs involving students, parents, and professionals of all kinds, Friends of Dance become members of a community dedicated to uplifting the talented, passionate individuals in the School of Dance.
The annual Young Dancer’s Workshop showcases master classes with Suzanne Farrell and the School of Dance faculty. Students from all over the southeast and beyond travel to Tallahassee to participate in a two-day workshop. The Young Dancers Workshop fund-raiser adds to our scholarship fund and also creates an awareness of what our dance major programs offers.

Friends of Dance scholarships allow students to study in places such as the American Dance Festival in Durham, North Carolina, our Dance in Paris Study Abroad Program, and FSU in NYC.

Friends of Dance provides financial assistance for housing and transportation for our students to attend the regional American College Dance Association.

Friends of Dance will award approximately 30 academic year, summer scholarship, and new student scholarship awards, for the 2017-18 school term.

provide experience
Over the years, Friends of Dance has supported the School of Dance in other ways that benefit students beyond our annual scholarship rewards. FOD members are ambassadors for dance in the local community and foster relationships with the School of Dance. These interactions provide far reaching positive impacts through receptions, volunteer activities, and support of the students and faculty of the School of Dance on and off campus.

As a way to honor the support and contributions the membership provides, Friends of Dance hosted a Member Soirée with Suzanne Farrell as the honorary host.

Parents enjoy meeting both the faculty and FOD Board of Directors at the FOD sponsored Parent’s Day hospitality reception for the School of Dance.

The Paint-Around Gala and Auction is a biennial collaborative fund-raiser to directly generate scholarship funds for the School of Dance, Department of Art, and Art Education.
We would like to invite you to be a friend and to serve as a vital support for our young artists. Your membership will be an integral part of building their future. To join or renew, please visit tickets.fsu.edu/online/article/fsudance or complete the membership form in this brochure and return it to the FSU School of Dance. Your membership makes a difference.
